

The Bylaws of the Interfraternity Council at The University of Michigan (Adopted November 10, 2021)

Article I. Election of Officers

Section 1 – Applications

- (a) All candidates must fill out and turn in an application for the Interfraternity Council (IFC) Executive Board prior to the deadline set by the executive board.
- (b) The due date of the application will be decided upon by the executive board and will be included on the application.
- (c) Candidates will be interviewed prior to the General Election meeting by members of the current IFC Executive Board and the IFC advisor.
- (d) Based on applications and interviews, the IFC Executive Board will announce a slate of applicants that they feel are exceptionally qualified to run for an officer position.

1. See Article I, Section 2.b for slating procedures

Section 2 – Elections

- (a) Candidates will be elected in the following order: President, Executive Vice President, Judicial Vice President, Vice President of Social Responsibility, Vice President of Recruitment, Vice President of Public Relations, Vice President of Programming, Vice President of Service, Vice President of Internal Affairs, Vice President of Finance.

- (b) Slating

1. The slate will be made by the IFC Executive Board and will serve as their endorsement of candidates.
2. The slate will be formed after an interview process, in which all candidates will be interviewed by a current member of the IFC Executive Board and the IFC Advisor.
3. The IFC Executive Board will write a summary at their discretion providing rationale for each position's slate. This summary must be approved by the Executive Board alongside the slate and presented with the slate to the IFC Legislative Body.
4. Any current IFC Board member running for a position in the following term will not be allowed to contribute to the slate for that position.
5. Each position will have a maximum of three candidates slated.
6. The slating list will be made available to the IFC Chapter Presidents and candidates prior to elections.
7. The slating list will include the chapter to which each candidate belongs, and may also be accompanied by any material representing the candidate.
8. An individual may be slated for more than one position.

9. Any candidate not slated for a position may still be nominated from the floor on the day of elections provided that the candidate has gone through the interview process.

(c) Nominations:

1. Nominations will be taken for each office prior to the candidates leaving the room.
2. No limit will be placed on how many positions a candidate may be nominated for.
3. If a candidate does not win a specific office they may then be nominated for a subsequent office.
4. The full slate of candidates will be displayed throughout elections.

(d) Speeches:

1. All candidates will speak in alphabetical order by last name.
2. The speeches for IFC President will not exceed five minutes.
3. The speeches for all other offices will not exceed three minutes.
4. During the election of each respective office, each candidate running for said office will wait outside the room of elections, entering only to give their speech.

(e) Question and Answer Period:

1. Before the candidates' speeches for each position, a maximum of three questions will be decided upon by the Legislative Body to present to each candidate. These questions will be consistent for each candidate.
2. The questions will be asked of each candidate directly following their speeches. They will have two minutes to answer each question.

(f) Pros & Cons:

1. Following each candidate for IFC President's question and answer period, a maximum of two pro statements may be made about the candidate. These statements will not exceed one minute each.
2. Following each candidate's question and answer period (except IFC President), a maximum of one pro statement may be made about the candidate and this statement will not exceed one minute.
3. IFC Executive Board members are not permitted to speak on behalf of candidates during elections.

(g) Vote

1. The membership will vote by secret, written ballot.
2. A majority vote is necessary to elect an officer.
3. Presidents will vote using a preferential voting system. Each president will mark their first and second choice for the office.
4. If a majority vote is not received using the presidents' first choices, the candidate who received the least amount of votes will be removed and the second choice votes (for the removed candidate only) will be added to the remaining votes.
5. The IFC President and the IFC Advisor, so long as a candidate is not from the IFC President's chapter, will count the votes. Another IFC Officer will take the place of the IFC President if necessary.

6. If there are two candidates remaining, and the vote is a tie, the IFC Officer counting the votes will cast the tie-breaking vote.

Article III. Removal from Office & Vacancies

Section 1 – Process

(a) An Executive Board member may be removed from office for the following reasons:

1. The failure to perform their duties as outlined in the IFC Constitution and Bylaws.
2. Unethical conduct or behavior that is not befitting of an elected official.
3. Failure to maintain good academic standing.

(b) The procedure for removal:

1. Notice of the motion to impeach made by a member of the legislative body must be presented in writing to the IFC President.
 - a. In the case that the motion is regarding the IFC President, the motion must be presented to the next highest ranking IFC Officer.
2. The President will notify the officer in question and the Legislative Body of the motion to impeach.
3. The officer in question will have the opportunity to defend themselves at the meeting of the vote and will not be permitted to have legal representation present on their behalf.
4. A minimum two-thirds vote of a quorum assembly of the Legislative Body is required for removal.

Section 2 - Vacancies

(a) If a vacancy should occur in any office for any reason, the office will be filled by either an election by the IFC Legislative Body at the soonest convenience or a temporary substitution by members of the Executive Board.

Article IV. Finances

Section 1 – Dues

(a) The Executive Board will determine the dues that member chapters owe IFC and will announce (by April 30) the amount of dues subject to a majority approval of the Legislative Body.

(b) Dues must be paid in full no later than 30 days following the receipt of an invoice. Failure to do so will result in Intramural Sports and Social probation as determined by the Vice President of Finance.

(c) Chapters with outstanding dues will not be permitted to vote in IFC Business, including officer elections nor will any member of that chapter be allowed to run for an elected position.

(d) The Vice President of Finance will have the option of turning unpaid dues over to a collection agency for collection.

Section 2 – External Funding

(a) The following process shall be followed by organizations who wish to seek funding or donations from the Interfraternity Council.

1. The organization must submit a completed External Funding Request Form to the President or the Vice President of Finance.

a. External Funding Request Forms will be made available upon request.

b. The External Funding Request Form may be submitted either via email or to the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.

c. If the request meets the funding restrictions, then the request shall be presented before the IFC executive board.

i. If the request is for less than $500, then the Executive board will decide whether to fund the request, deny the request, or have the Vice President of Finance present the proposal at the next IFC Business meeting. ii. If the Request is for $500 or more, the Vice President of Finance will present the request at the next IFC Business meeting.

(b) Funding Restrictions

1. The Interfraternity Council shall not donate any funds to an organization that intends to use them for the purchase of alcohol, tobacco, firearms, gasoline, or any other item that the Student Organization Account Service will not reimburse.

2. The Interfraternity Council shall not fund an event held by a member chapter of IFC, unless the organization agrees to accept IFC as a full co-sponsor and accept an IFC appointed delegate on the event's planning committee.

3. The Vice President of Finance will maintain accurate records of how much of each external organization's allocation has been used.

4. External organizations which have received funding from IFC have 4 school weeks to submit their receipts to the Vice President of Finance, or risk losing their allocation at the discretion of the Vice President of Finance.

Article V. Expansion

The University of Michigan IFC supports the process of expansion as detailed in the expansion process outlined in the Articles of Expansion.

Article VI. Suspensions

Section 1 - Interim Suspension

An interim suspension temporarily prohibits a chapter from participating in IFC business until lifted or a proper adjudication pathway is fulfilled. This measure is only meant to be pursued in situations where immediate action must be taken for the safety and/or integrity of the council and university community.

(a) Upon due cause, a chapter of IFC may be placed on interim suspension following a vote of two-thirds of the eligible voting membership.

- (b) A chapter may be placed on an interim suspension from the IFC in the event that an immediate action needs to be taken by the IFC community to preserve the health and safety of the community or to protect the integrity of our fraternal system for a failure to uphold community values.
- (c) An interim suspension may be placed into effect until the proper adjudication pathway can be fulfilled.
- (d) An interim suspension can last no longer than 45 calendar days without reaffirmation by a majority vote by the chapter representatives.

Section 2 - Suspension

- (a) Upon decision by GARP or SOAR, a chapter of IFC may be suspended following a vote of two- thirds of the eligible voting membership.
- (b) If a chapter has been suspended by its Inter/national organization, and such suspension has been made known to the Interfraternity Council, the Interfraternity Council President or another member of the Executive Board shall file a complaint with GARP. If it is determined by GARP that the actions of the Chapter violated any IFC Bylaw, Policy or Constitutional provision, the Chapter shall be placed on suspension for a period to run concurrently with the length of suspension issued by the Inter/national organization.

Section 3 – Outcomes

- (a) Suspended chapters may not vote in any IFC meeting nor participate in any IFC projects, programs or activities.
- (b) Members of suspended chapters may not seek any IFC office, including membership in standing committees, IFC Executive board, etc.
- (c) IFC may impose conditions or terms of suspension that must be satisfied before the chapter may return to active status. Any such terms or conditions shall be noted in the IFC minutes and provided in writing to the suspended chapter.

Article VII. Recruitment

Section 1 – Recruitment Period

- (a) Recruitment period dates, times, and official duration will be determined by the Vice President of Recruitment and must be approved by the Interfraternity Council Executive Board.
- (b) Events
 1. The following events are to be scheduled by the Vice President of Recruitment: Mass Meeting, Fraternity Forum, Open Houses, and Individual Chapter Event Periods.
 2. Other Events- At the discretion of the Vice President of Recruitment, other events may be scheduled as part of the recruitment calendar. Other events include, but are not limited to, residence hall information sessions, sporting events, concerts, movie nights or other IFC sponsored social events.
 3. Bids - The IFC Executive Board must distribute and register all IFC bids to prospective new members through one or more bid days within one week of the last day of individual chapter events.

Section 2 – Recruitment Regulation

(a) Bids

1. Bids or promises of bids cannot be given out until the first day of the official recruitment period.
2. After the last day of individual chapter events, each fraternity must submit an official bid list of prospective new members they wish to invite to join their fraternity to the IFC VP of Recruitment.
3. After IFC Bid Day, a chapter cannot give out bids or promises of bids until the first day of individual chapter events of the next IFC recruitment period. Exceptions to this provision may be made according to the process outlined in the IFC Bylaws, Article VIII, Section 2 (a) (4).
4. Bids may never be given out during spring or summer term.
5. Failure to abide by the provisions outlined in this section will be considered a recruitment violation.

(b) Non-Alcoholic Period

1. No registered social events are to take place during the official duration of the recruitment period.
 - a. Exceptions to this policy may be granted by the IFC VP of Social Responsibility at their discretion.
2. The entire IFC recruitment period shall be alcohol-free. No chapter shall serve or provide alcohol to potential new members (PNMs) nor allow anyone on behalf of the chapter to provide alcohol to PNMs during the recruitment period.

(c) Illegal Drug Use

1. The use of illegal drugs during the Interfraternity Council recruitment period is absolutely prohibited.
2. Evidence of illegal drug use during any recruitment event will constitute a recruitment infraction.

Section 3 – Enforcement

(a) Violations of these policies will be referred to a committee of the VP of Recruitment and the VP of Social Responsibility. This committee will hold mediation with the president and the recruitment officer of the chapter involved in the violation.

(b) If the VP of Recruitment or VP of Social Responsibility is a member of the chapter involved in the mediation, that officer will be replaced by the IFC President. If the IFC President is a member of the chapter involved in the mediation, then the IFC Executive Vice President will be placed on the committee.

(c) If the mediation effort is unsuccessful, then the committee of the VP of Recruitment and the VP of Social Responsibility will deem a recruitment infraction has taken place and refer the issue to the Greek Activities Review Panel (GARP).

(d) The committee of the VP of Recruitment and the VP of Social Responsibility will take all circumstances into account when holding mediation and will recognize chapters acting in good faith to follow best practices of risk management.

(e) Best practices of risk management include but are not limited to those practices stated in the Social Policy.

i. Serving alcohol to summer orientees on Chapter property or in the name of the Chapter is prohibited. Allegations, complaints and violations will be sent to the Greek Activities Review Panel (GARP).

(f) The Social Responsibility Committee will ensure that no registered social events take place during the recruitment period.

(g) Punishments for infractions include, but are not limited to:

1. The loss of privileges to attend mass meetings and hold Open Houses for one or two semesters.
2. An appropriate period of social probation.
3. Exclusion from IFC recruitment advertising and marketing materials.

Article X. Hazing

See the Fraternity and Sorority Community Policy Regarding Hazing

Article XI. Rules of Order

Section 1 – Robert’s Rules of Order

(a) Interfraternity Council Legislative and Executive Body meetings will be held in accordance with Robert’s Rules of Order.

Section 2 – Attendance at meetings

(a) If a chapter of the Interfraternity Council is not present at the regularly scheduled meeting of the Interfraternity Council for two (2) or more consecutive meetings, that chapter will be subject to sanctions determined by Chapter Presidents or representatives of those chapters in good standing in IFC. These sanctions are to be determined at the discretion of the voting members, have no stipulations or limits and the decision to implement and enforce sanctions is totally at the will of those chapters present. Those representatives in good standing will decide sanctions for the offending chapter immediately and in the course of the regularly scheduled meeting.

(b) In addition to sanctions, if any, chapter attendance of the semester’s meetings will also determine how much that chapter is eligible to receive through incentive grants.

1. If a chapter is absent for less than two meetings, it is eligible to receive the full grant.
2. If a chapter is absent for two meetings, it forfeits $25 per grant.
3. If a chapter is absent for three meetings, it forfeits $50 per grant.

4. If a chapter is absent for four meetings, it forfeits $100 per grant.
5. If a chapter is absent for five or more meetings, it is not eligible to receive any funding for grants.

(c) The chapter(s) with the highest percentage of attendance is/are eligible for a specific award for outstanding attendance from IFC at the Fraternity and Sorority Awards Night along with a letter of accommodation sent to the inter/national organization of the chapter(s).

Article XII. Member Education

Section 1 - New Member Programming

_____ (a) New Member Education Programming is defined as, at a minimum, High Impact Training, the FSL Education Module, and New Member Orientation.

Section 2 – New Member Expectations

(a) Each semester new members will be required to complete New Member Education Programming for which the chapters will be given a two weeks' notice before the release of the program.

(b) Failure to meet an 80% completion rate of new members will result in a fine imposed on each chapter that does not meet attendance expectations.

1. This fine will be imposed on a per-new member basis under the 80% threshold at the IFC VP of Finance's discretion.

(c) It is the Fraternity's responsibility to update its New Member list should a change occur.

Article XIII. Standing Committess

Section 1 - Committees

(a) Judicial – Greek Activities Review Panel (G.A.R.P.)

1. G.A.R.P. will be co-chaired by the IFC Judicial Vice President, the Panhellenic Association Judicial Vice President and the Executive Vice Presidents of both the National Pan-Hellenic Council and the Multicultural Greek Council.
